

DEAN WELKE

Dean Welke is a highly accomplished and results-driven Edmonton-based executive leader with a proven track record of translating vision into actionable plans and constructing robust business-needs-based strategies and operational frameworks that drive organizational growth, build high-functioning teams, and foster healthy and equitable workplace cultures. Using a collaborative leadership approach, critical thinking skills, and proficiency in fostering stakeholder relationships, Dean recognizes challenges early and devises creative solutions that build trusting relationships.

Dean is an experienced not-for-profit leader and has a passion for fundraising and organizational capacity building. His community mindset and volunteerism will support the goals of Parkinson Association of Alberta.